IE Discovery Offers Continuing Legal Education for Federal Government Agencies Presentation Addresses Best Practices in Electronic Discovery Preparedness

Austin, Texas (December 18, 2007) – IE Discovery, a leading provider of comprehensive Discovery Management solutions for the legal community, has recently presented a panel discussion for Federal Agencies, entitled “Electronic Discovery Preparedness: How Federal Agencies are Meeting The Challenge.” Comprised of five highly qualified speakers, the discussion took place on December 17, 2007 in Washington, D.C. The event is only one in a series of educational sessions that IE Discovery has organized across the country.

IE Discovery’s recent discussion panel focused on best practices in electronic discovery; what Electronic Discovery Working Groups are doing to prepare their agencies; and the future of electronic discovery. Panelists included:

- John A. Davidovich, Supervisory Counsel, Financial Crimes Group, Litigation Branch, FDIC
- Kim Bruno, Counsel to the Director of Enforcement, Commodity Futures Trading Commission
- Sharyn Danch, Associate Counsel, Office of General Counsel, Office of General Law, United States Patent and Trademark Office
- Ted Hirt, Assistant Director, Civil Division, Department of Justice
- Gail Parks, [NEED TITLE], IE Discovery

“The feedback from the participants regarding our discussion panel’s presentation was overwhelmingly positive,” said Parks. “Our panel successfully addressed many of today’s electronic discovery issues and pitfalls, and left our members with excellent suggestions for improvements and added efficiencies. We are committed to helping Federal Agencies meet the challenges of tomorrow’s electronic discovery strategies.”
